

Welcome to Good Shepherd Chapel

ST. MICHAEL CATHOLIC COMMUNITY

MISSION STATEMENT

Saint Michael's Catholic Community is a group of Catholic Christians associated with the Armed Forces under the guidance of the Holy Spirit working in and through the Archbishop of the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA, his priest-chaplains, deacons, the military chain of command and the Catholic faithful. By the action of the Holy Spirit, the community is dedicated to proclaiming the Good news of Jesus Christ through sacramental apostolic worship for, charitable apostolic service to, and faithful apostolic catechesis of, Military Service Members and their families assigned to Fort Gordon, Georgia.

The Baptism of the Lord

First Reading: Isaiah 40:1-5, 9-11

The prophet speaks with Joy and hope of the coming of God, with "power" to restore Israel.

Second Reading: Titus 2:11-14, 3:4-7

Are we living our lives committed to our Baptism, and ready to greet God whenever he comes again.

Gospel: Luke 3:15-16, 21-22

The revelation of God in Christ takes a major step forward as the heavenly voice announces Jesus' divine sonship and God's favor.

Knights of Columbus

The Knights are collecting Food for the Poor. Please only dry goods, cans and nothing that is opened. We ask that the children bring up the food during the presentation of the gifts. Ask your children to meet the ushers in the entrance of our chapel right after we recite the Creed to get ready for the procession.

The Catholic Women of the Chapel (CWOC), meet every Monday at 09:30 a.m. in Bldg. 7 of the Religious Education Complex for a faith study. Join anytime or call Nicole Drake for information about the program or any questions regarding CWOC.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The Religious Education program

Join us this weekend for the year with a special event, "Family Day", celebrating the Feast of the 3 Kings.

Do you know their names?

Come prepared for a great celebration, meet our Kings, enjoy food, fellowship and learning more about our faith together.
